EMPLOYED

the Belfast Riots, Takes a Step

Toward Defeating the

Ends of Justice,

It is very much to be regretted that THE BULGARIAN PEOPLE Gen. Miles exceeded his instructions and has made it imposible for the President to pursue his plan of having the captured Aparhes tried by a civil court for murder. The General, by the terms he offered Geromino and his fellow butchers, has prevented their adequate punishment and shielded them from the gallows, which they richly deserved. But it will be something to know they are in Florida, and are thus far removed from their haunts and the possibility of any more massacres or murders. In the flowery land they will be ss so many lambs. Their trade of murder has forever lapsad.

THE committee charged with that duty by the Democrats of Memphis have made all the necessary preparations for the reception of the Hon. Robert Taylor, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and it will no doubt be worthy of the city and of the distinguished gentleman. That the people will turn out tonight to hear him goes without saying. They are not only anxious to hear and see him that they may judge of his qualifications for the high position to which he aspires, but they will be attracted by the novelty of a canvass that has brought two brothers face to face as the leading representatives of opposing political principles. Every Democrat in the city will be present and thousands from the country,

THE commission to investigate the recent riots at Belfast is likely to prove a farce, as was no doubt intended by the Salisbury government. At the very outset of the proceedings the lawyers in attendance for both sides the sides fresh interruption and shouts of "The were met with most mandatory and insulting treatment by Judge Day, who regarded them as if they were under his orders and were not entitled to anything like personal consideration. Of course, protest was made against such autocratic conduct, but it is doubtful if it avails anything. The government cannot stand a fair and close investigation. Too much might be proven as to the origin of the bloody riots in the advice and encouragement so freely given by Lord Randolph Churchill.

THE situation in Bulgaria is more complicated than ever. A meeting of 5000 citiz ns held at Sofia on Sunday pssied a resolution declaring for the maintenance of the constituand laws as essential the country, thigarian freedom, and Gen. "The Bulgarians as a nation," he to Bulgarian freedom, and Gen. Kaulbars, who was present, when he spoke for the Czar, and declared what he would and would not consent to, was told in plain terms by those present that they did not want instructions; they would take advice, but not dictation. But Russia seems to be master of the situation sustained by B smarck, who joined with Russia yesterday in refusing to unite with Austria in a peaceful and amicable adjustment of the Bulgarian difficulty on the basis of the Berlin treaty. It is only a question of time when Russia will take possession of Bulgaria, and perhaps Roumelia, and annex them to the Empire. She would thus shorten the march to Constantinople.

THE formal opening of the meeting of the Knights of Labor at Richmond, Va., yesterday, was signalized by an excellent speech by Gov. Fitz Hugh Lee, in which he urged the adoption of measin which he urged the adoption of measures of compromise for the settlement stavoff and carried him about in their of future differences between labor and capital. The Governor traced in the formation of our government the effect of compromise when opposing elements were so wide apart it seemed impossible even to bring them together in agreement. But the spirit of compromise evoked, each agreed to surrender something of view and opinion for the common good, and the resu't was the constitution and the union, which have stood every possible test, even that of a bloody civi' war. By this speech Gov. Lee proves himself a statesman and the workingman's friend. By compromise everything is to be gained, by constant warfare nothing but waste of time, money and energy and eventual ruin.

MR. GLADSTONE WAS yesterday presanted with the freedom of the cities of Waterford, Clonmell, Cork and Limerick in recognition of his manly and statesmanlike espousal of the cause of home rule in Ireland. Deeply touched by honors prompted by the national faith and hope, his voice was husky and he was only able to assure the delegations representing four of the most historic of Irish cities that the people of Ireland will always largely share his interest and his affection. Mr. Gladstone at the same time received a petition for home rule signed by 500,000 of the women of Ireland, which, no doubt, he will present to the House of Commons at its next session. The whirligig of time is said to produce many wonderful changes, but there is none more wonderful than that which has made the once Tory Minister, the hope of the Tories and their best defender, the champion of Irish rights and Irish legislative independence. Let us hope that he may live to see home rule an accomplished fact mainly by his own aid and help.

Five thousand persons attended the meeting held yesterday to hear from Dr. Voultcheff his report of the conference lest Thursday between Gen. Kaulbars and the 114 Balgarian notables, headed by the doc or, who called upon the Russian agent to respect to the conference modifications in Europea, dequest modifications in Russia's demands. The audience cheered Dr. Voultcheff during his narrative, and uttered groans for Russia. Dr. Voultcheff proposed, and the meeting adopted, a resolution declaring confidence in the government, and assurance to it of moral and national support so long as it continued to maintain the inde-dependence of Bulgaria and the Con-stitution and laws of the country. During the proceedings a Russian srose and shouled, "Long live the Cz r." "Down with the government." He was at once act upon by the andience and roughly handled, and would probably have been killed if the police had not rescued him and conducted him to a place of safety.

While the procedurgs were in progress Gen. Kaulbars suddenly and unexpectedly appeared and mounted the tribune. His appearance made a rensation. The audience became quiet and respectful. He addressed them, and said he was there to express the Czar's desire. He was at once loudly interrupted by shouts of "We want no desire; we will listen to advice if it is good." Gen. Kaulbars, man was not beaten for cheering for the Czer; but because be cried 'Down

They cried out that they would receive no orders. Among the shorts were: "The state of siege Howery, United States District Attack of the state of siege in at his post of duty. the shouls were: "The state of siege has a ready been raised!" "The poli-ical prisoners will not be released!" "The people will stone them if they are free!" "The elections will not be a 'journed!" "The law must be respected, otherwise progress is impossi-ble!" When the crowd had ceased shouting G n Kaulbars declared that the Czar would refuse unless the e ections were pos poned to recognize the Great Sobranje elected to choose a successor to Prince Alexander.

The andience again became tumultuous. They shouted at Gen. Kaul-bars: "We don't care; we will stone whosver violates the constitution.

MACKIN'S PARTNER

In the Election Frauds at Chicago Arrested on Another Charge.

CHICAGO, ILL, October 4 - William J. Gallsgher was arrested this morning for alleg d complicity in a city re-base warrant fraud. It was rumored that thousands of dollars on rebate warrants had been secured by the conspirators. That some employe in the special assessment department played into the hand of rogues is admitted. Comptroller Schwab denies, however, that the conspirators have pocketed any considerable amount of money. "I think," he said to a reporter, "that there has been no serious fraud committed. Of course, it is within the but I think this was only the inception of an attempt to defraud the taxpayers, and I am sure that it will not occur again." Before the Commission to Investigate

BELEAST, October 4.—The commission appointed to investigate the cir comstances causing and attending the recent riots met today. Al the bar-risters engaged to attend the investgation, excepting two, in istad on ad-journment for a few minites, fifteen at least, in order to decide on what course to sdopt. Justice Day refused to grant the adjournment, saying it would be a waste of time. The Justice then, despite the pro-tests of the barrieters, proceeded to examine a witners, whereupon the barristers present rose and left the courtroom in a procession, taking their bags, briefs and backs with them. Several solicitors, priests and Orangemen interested in the investi-gation followed the barrister. Barris ter O Shaughnessy said he was indig nant at Justice Day's conduc', and added: "The Irish bar is not used to such treatment."

The only wirness examined by the commission was Inspector Carr. Several meetings were held tonight to draw up indignant protes against Tadea Davia treatment of the Irith Judge Day's treatment of the Lith bar. It transpires that Messis, French and Adams, Lish members of the commission, supported the reques for adjournment, while Messra Bul-ver and McHardy supported the chairman. It is rumored in le-gal circles that Mr. Adams will retire from the commis-sion. Those sequanted with the true state of affairs are of the opinion that the whole thing will end in a farce. It is thought the constables will be the only witnesses. The mambers of the bar subsequently returned to the courtroom and presented a protest sgainst the action of the commission, as opposed to the interests of their clients and the action.
